YALE NOTES.

Men Chosen to Speak for the Townsend Premiums.

The following are the names and subjects of the men who have been chosen to speak for the Townsend premiums at commencement:
 Roger Sherman Baldwin, New York city, "Lourdes."
 Julian Ingersoll Chamberlain, New York city, "The Religion of Milton and the Religion of George Herbert."
 Clement George Clarke, Manhattan, Kans., "The Religion of Milton and the Religion of George Herbert."
 Lindsay Denison, Washington, D. C., "Historical Novels."
 Francis Burton Harrison, New York city, "The Generalship of Marlborough and of Wellington Compared."
 Charles Cheney Hyde, Chicago, Ill., "The Generalship of Marlborough and of Wellington Compared."
 The judges were Professor Boers, Professor Palmer, Dr. Phelps and Dr. Colton. The Townsend premiums, five in number, of $12 each, founded in 1843 by the gift of Isaac H. Townsend of New Haven, are awarded in each senior class for the best specimens of English composition; all compositions receiving premiums must be read in public. The DeForest prize, founded in 1823 by David C. DeForest of New Haven, and consisting of a gold medal of the value of $100, is awarded "to that scholar of the senior class who shall write and pronounce in public an English oration in the best manner." The president and professors being judges.

MANY YALE MEN WILL BE THERE

Yale-Harvard Games at Cambridge To-day.
 Many of the Yale contingent left for Cambridge yesterday to be present at the games which are to be played between Harvard and Yale on Holmes' field to-day. Many more besides will go to Cambridge to-day. It is the general opinion that the games will be close and exciting, although it is acknowledged that the chances are in favor of Yale.

PATROLMAN HYDE'S TRIAL

Will Take Place in the City Court Room Next Tuesday Night.

It is probable that the trial of Patrolman George L. Hyde, charged with uttering false and malicious statements in reference to Captain James Whinn of police headquarters, will take place next Tuesday evening. Commissioner Prince, who is also president of the board of police commissioners, stated last night that all the members of the board had agreed to be on hand next Tuesday evening and that a special meeting of the board would be called for the purpose of investigating the charges against Patrolman Hyde. The trial will take place in the city court room and the witnesses in the case will in all probability be subpoenaed to-day.

Woolson-Hall.

A quiet home wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hall of 581 Elm street, last Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, attended by the relatives and intimate friends. The contracting parties were Miss Jessamine H. Hall and James M. Woolson, who is with Starr H. Barnum, the manufacturer, Rev. Dr. Twitcomb of Dwight Place church tied the nuptial knot. The best man was Mr. John Hill, a member of the New Haven Grays. The maid of honor was Miss Josephine Hall, a sister of the bride. The couple were the recipients of many handsome presents, among which was an elegant clock from the members of the New Haven Grays, of which the groom was a member. The couple left on a wedding tour.

The H. Wales Lines company, Meriden, has secured the contract for the masonry upon the new Swedish Lutheran church to be erected on Center street in that city.
